

Counselor Education Wellness Works presents:

Acupuncture & Oriental Medicine

Acupuncture physicians and doctors of Oriental medicine are licensed as primary care physicians in Florida. Learn about their proven healing method that balances your body to promote natural healing, good for emotional and physical problems as well as maintaining wellness.

Monday, April 6, 2009

5:00 – 6:00 pm

Norman 1327A

Presented by

Amy Galvan, Student Intern
Dragon Rises College of Oriental Medicine

Amy Galvan is a senior-level intern practicing in the clinic at Dragon Rises College of Oriental Medicine in Gainesville, a 10-semester Master's degree program specializing in psychology and Chinese medicine. Amy is a former public school educator and trained volunteer counselor for victim services. She has a lot to share about how Oriental medicine can contribute to your own wellness as well as the wellness of those you may be helping in your profession. You can visit mygainesvilleacupuncture.com for introductory information or to set up an appointment at a discounted rate with a student intern at Dragon Rises College of Oriental Medicine in Gainesville.

If you have any comments, questions or suggestions for future wellness activities, please contact:

Cheryl Pence Wolf, Principle Investigator, cpence@ufl.edu

Isabel Thompson, Co-investigator, ithompson@ufl.edu

Eric Thompson, Co-investigator, erict56@ufl.edu

This program is sponsored by CSI Beta Chapter
Partial funding for this research was provided by a grant from the Chi Sigma Iota Counseling Academic and Professional Honor Society International