2010 Professional Development and Leadership Conference Call for Proposals

Please join us for the 2010 CSI Beta Professional Development and Leadership Conference, which is dedicated to the professional development of students and faculty in the University of Florida Counselor Education program. We are seeking proposals for presentations that demonstrate excellence in counseling, scholarship, research, and leadership. This is a great opportunity to share your research and experiences from the field! We highly encourage first time presenters to submit proposals!

The conference will be held on Friday afternoon, March 26th in Norman Hall. Presentations will be approximately 50 minutes in length. Please indicate needed technology on your proposal (i.e. overhead projectors, DVD players, etc.). Please include the additional information in your proposal:

Presentation Title: Select a title that accurately reflects the theme of your presentation and limit your title to 50 characters for inclusion in the program.

Contact Person: Please include contact information for the main presenter, including name, institutional affiliation, program(s) of study, contact phone number and email address.

Synopsis of Presentation: Please provide a concise (200 word max) synopsis of your presentation for the conference program. The synopsis should give readers a clear understanding of the purpose, goals, objectives, content, and intended audience (i.e. school counselors, mental health counselors, marriage and family therapists, etc.)

Submission Deadline: Proposals must be received electronically by March 20th. They will be reviewed by the Professional Development Committee for inclusion in the conference. Presenters will be notified no later than Tuesday, March 23rd regarding the status of their proposal.
